Rooibos and Green Rooibos Health Properties

- o Rooibos is naturally caffeine-free (unlike black & green tea).
- o Kilojoule & preservative free therefore supporting weight-loss.
- o Proven cancer-fighting properties in animal research studies.
- o A good source of antioxidants and the only known source of the antioxidant aspalathin.
- o The antioxidants in rooibos bind with free radicals to lower oxidative stress, combatting cholesterol, high blood pressure, heart diseases and type 2 diabetes.
- o Green (unfermented) rooibos is even higher in antioxidants with better antimutagenic (cancer-fighting) activities.
- o Alleviates allergies – asthma, hay fever.
- o Low in tannin - doesn't interfere with iron absorption.
- o Excellent for hyperactive children - babies from 6 months old can consume rooibos tea.
- o A naturally relaxing drink at night assisting with a good night's sleep as it is soothing on the nervous system.
- o Stomach and indigestion problems like nausea, vomiting, heartburn, stomach ulcers and constipation are relieved by drinking black rooibos tea.
- o Anti-spasmodic, alleviating colic and stomach cramps in babies.
- o Soothing effect on the skin, relieving itching and certain skin irritations like eczema, nappy rash and acne when directly applied to the affected area.
- o Latest research indicates:
 - that the application of rooibos on the skin after sunburn, can prevent permanent damage to the skin.
 - that you can increase the health benefits of a cup of rooibos by steeping for 10 minutes and longer or leaving the teabag in your cup.
 - that drinking 6 cups of rooibos daily improves health significantly.

ROOIBOS

All Carmién Tea Products are rooibos based (translating to “Red Bush” in English) and is grown in the unique

(60 000 ha) Western Cape region of South Africa. Rooibos is grown from seed or seedlings, from one cultivar, Aspalathus Linearis. It is a needle-like bush with a deep tap root system and a 5 year life cycle, well known world-wide for its exceptional health benefits.

In May 2021 Rooibos became the first African food to receive the status of Geographical Indication (GIs), Regulation (EU)No 1151/2012, granting it the Protected Designation of Origin (PDO). Sixteen regions within the Western and Northern Cape of South Africa are the only regions where Rooibos can be grown and be called Rooibos Tea.

Our Carmién Rooibos tea farms are spread across these areas and together with our long-term contracted producers, we obtain Rooibos from all the different specified regions.

WE OFFER

Carmién Tea offers rooibos, green rooibos, honeybush, green honeybush and a variety of flavours and blends in bulk, private label and various eco-friendly, plastic-free, compostable tea bag types to choose from.

NATURAL ROOIBOS

COLD BREW RANGE

Cold Brew teas are specially developed to be used in cold water. Using cold water instead of hot water extracts more of the flavours, but slower, over time.

The result? A smooth, cleaner, sweeter tasting tea.

This is because cold water extracts a different chemical balance from the tea than hot water.
